Utah 5, Milwaukee 4

MILWAUKEE, Wisconsin (Ticker) -- Cameron Mann scored two goals, including the game-winner late in the third period, and had a pair of assists and Wade Flaherty stopped a season-high 49 shots as the Utah Grizzlies edged the Milwaukee Admirals, 5-4. Mann, who netted the winning goal for Utah in its last match on December 19, scored his ninth of the season with 49 seconds remaining in regulation, giving the Grizzlies a 5-4 lead. He opened the scoring 4:06 into the first period, fed Greg Hawgood's score 34 seconds later and helped set up Jim Montgomery three minutes later to supply Utah with an early 3-1 lead. Mann now has (5g, 4a) over his last five games, a span in which the Grizzlies have gone 4-1-0. Flaherty turned aside 19 first-period attempts and 30 over the final two frames for the win, improving his record to 12-6-3. Marty Standish finished with three assists, his first three points since joining Utah a game ago. Jason Goulet, who also had an assist, tied the score at 4-4 with his 10th of the season 3:19 into the third for Milwaukee, which has lost five of its last six games. Steve Dubinsky added a pair of goals for the Admirals, who outshot the Grizzlies in the contest, 53-23. Jan Lasak stopped just 18 shots in defeat, dropping his record to 3-6-1.
